

Join Us for a Farm & Family Safety Day!

Mark your calendars, Eden Township residents! The highly anticipated Farm & Family Safety Day is just around the corner, and we're excited to announce that it's happening on Saturday, April 13th, 2024, at the Bart Fire Department on Furnace Road.

Organized in collaboration with Safe Kids Lancaster County and the Eden Township Emergency Management Agency (EMA), this event promises a fun-filled and informative day for the whole family.

What to Expect:

- Educational Workshops: Gain valuable insights into farm and family safety through interactive workshops led by experts in the field. From fire safety to farm equipment operation, there will be something for everyone to learn.
- Hands-On Activities: Engage in hands-on activities designed to teach important safety practices in a fun and memorable way. From CPR demonstrations to fire extinguisher training, you'll have the opportunity to practice life-saving skills.
- Interactive Exhibits: Explore informative exhibits showcasing the latest safety technologies and resources available to keep your family and farm safe. Learn about emergency preparedness, child safety seats, and more.
- Community Networking: Connect with fellow residents and safety professionals to exchange ideas, ask questions, and build a stronger, safer community together.
- Food: Light breakfast will be provided and a sub sale to benefit the fire hall will be available for lunch.

How to Participate:

Attendance is free and open to all Eden Township residents. Simply mark your calendar for Saturday, April 13th, and head over to the Bart Fire Department between 8:30am and 10:30am. Bring your family, friends, and neighbors for a day of learning and fun! Anticipate spending about 2-3 hours at the event upon arrival to experience all of the workshops, activities, and exhibits.

You can pre-register for the event by emailing Lindsay Pringle at Lindsay.Pringle@penmedicine.upenn.edu or calling 717-544-3807.
